

645—63.7(157) Salons adjacent to other businesses. A salon operated adjacent to any other business shall be separated by at least a partial partition. When the salon is operated immediately adjacent to a business where food is handled, such establishment shall be entirely separated and any doors between the salon and the business shall be rendered unusable except in an emergency.